

A GCSE student guide to EFFECTIVE GERMAN REVISION

Let's get started Leaving all of your revision and cramming at the last minute is stressful and has limited success. The earlier you start revising, the more likely you are to cover all of the content and remember it.		Put a plan in place Work out how much time you have and how long you can spend on each skill area. Little and often is key!
Create a suitable space Find a quiet spot away from distractions and keep all of your revision materials in one place.		Take regular breaks It is possible to work too hard or for too long. Your brain needs a rest to help it process & retain information.

LISTENING – 25%	READING – 25%
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Do all listening tasks in class to the best of your ability- you are practising those exam skills without realising it! - Work through any revision books you have bought/been given & revise vocabulary 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Do all reading tasks in class to the best of your ability & practise those exam skills! - Revise vocabulary & work through any revision books you have bought/been given

For success in all 4 exams, a good knowledge of the core vocabulary is essential!

- Practise your Module 1-8 vocabulary on Quizlet.com, memrise.com & pearsonactivelearn.com
- Revise vocabulary from your handbook- condense the amount you have to revise by highlighting the words/phrases that you're not confident with and make revision cards that you can test yourself with

SPEAKING – 25%	WRITING – 25%
Role play <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Complete practice tasks from your speaking handbook - Revise the key role play structures - Time yourself and gradually complete practice tasks with no support Photo discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Complete practice tasks from your speaking handbook - Revise the key structures from the PALM photo mat - Time yourself and gradually complete practice tasks with no support Conversation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Make revision cards so that your friends/family members can test you - Practise little and often Remember- after you've done your speaking exam, don't stop practising your conversation question answers as you will be asked to write about the same topics in your writing exam! 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Regularly revise the key verbs in the different tenses - Complete all writing tasks in lessons - Revise vocabulary - Do all writing tasks in class to the best of your ability- using your handbook and other resources to help you

Attend the Grade booster class! Ask for help/support when you need it!